Description

SP102-201 is an intensive, 6-credit Spanish language course which covers material traditionally taught in second-semester beginner and first-semester intermediate Spanish; it is ideal for students who have taken one prior 3- or 4-credit course in beginner Spanish. After a general review aimed at reinforcing language skills and filling in possible gaps, the course will focus on the new material. Various linguistic and communicative forms will be presented within real-life situations in relation to social and cultural aspects of Spanish life. Group activities will stimulate interaction in class, self-correction and cooperation among students. Paper material, as well as audio material, will provide for a better approach to the language and to its cultural and social aspects.
