

Universidad de Salamanca
Trimester Program

Course Title: Spanish Oral Skills
Contact hours: 50 (approx. 3 semester credits)

Course Content:

In this course, listening and speaking skills development in a wide variety of situations is the aim. Guided classroom activities offer contexts in which students will improve their comprehension and expression. There is a special focus on tailoring language usage for each specific situation, interacting properly, improving fluency, and deploying appropriate communicative strategies.