John Cabot University at Rome Fiumicino Airport

Walking Directions to the Hilton Rome Airport Hotel

A pedestrian walkway connects the Hilton Rome Airport to all domestic and international terminals at the Leonardo da Vinci Fiumicino Airport and takes approximately 7min, by foot, to reach.

Directions from Terminal 3 (T3)/Terminal 2 (T2) Arrivals – Travelers from the US will arrive here

1. Clear /baggage claim/Custom and exit the doors into the Terminal 3/Terminal 2 arrival area
2. Meet the JCU Representative who will indicate the way to the Hilton or
3. With your back to the baggage claim/customs area, turn left
4. Take the elevator to the 2nd floor – “Terrazza di Roma.” (This is located next to the bar called “Chef Express” – with the large red sign)

5. Exit the elevator and turn left, heading towards the skywalk

6. Keep going straight – there are many sections and moving sidewalks involved (images below)

7. Follow the Hilton Airport Roma Hotel Signs

8. Take the elevator, at the end of the skywalk, down to the ground floor

9. Follow the long sidewalk to the Hilton's Main entrance (picture above)

10. Make your way through the Hilton to JCU's designated conference room: "Sala Degli Imperatori"

So, you have landed...

What To Do Now

OK. It's been a long, tough trip. Your sense of adventure is wearing thin, and you need a hot shower. The end is almost in sight. Once you have picked up your bags and gone through customs:

- Get about €150 (if you have not arrived with it)
- Go to TERMINAL 3 ARRIVALS where a representative with a JCU sign will direct you to the check-in area at the Hilton Rome Airport Hotel
- Head towards the Hilton to check-in and catch our shuttle – Ask for JCU's assigned conference room

Shuttle Information

- Runs from 9 am to 7 pm on designated arrival dates
- Only for students who submitted Arrival Information Form prior to arrival in Rome
- If you arrive at another time or day, please make your own transportation arrangements

If you can't take the shuttle...

Alternate Transport

Train:

-  Entering arrival area, follow signs to the FS Trenitalia Station
- Take the Leonardo Express to Stazione Termini, the main train station in Rome
- Cost of a ticket is €11
- Train departs every half hour on the :07 and :37 mark
- The last train is at 11:37 pm
- Take a taxi once at Termini station

Taxi:

- Exit the arrivals area
- Follow the signs to the taxi stand
- Prices for a taxi range from €50 to €80, depending on the trip

Car Service:

- AutolineRoma: +39.339.385.5056
- 24-hour car service
- Ask for your JCU student discount

You are encountering difficulties...

Common Problems

Missing Bags:

- Don't panic, it happens a lot!
- Find the airline's help desk in the luggage claim area to fill out a claim
- Provide the address of the University for delivery
- We'll help you check with the airport for luggage updates

Stuck in a Connecting City:

- Go to the tourist/help desk and ask if there is a hotel nearby
- Verify transportation to and from the airport
- Notify JCU of the change

Delayed Flight/JCU Closed:

- Hilton (convenient!) at Rome Airport: +39.06.65258
- Medaglie D'Oro (Fall/Spring):
Via Gualtiero Serafino 8
+39.06.3973.9700
- Any hotel near Campo di Fiori, the Coliseum, the Pantheon, Piazza Navona or Spanish Steps is centrally located and a short ride to JCU

Before you depart...

Carry-On Checklist

- Passport - 3 copies of your photo & visa pages
- Visa
- Calling card
- Credit card
- ATM card (remember to ask your bank if it is alright to use in Europe)
- Prescription medications
- Change of clothes (plan ahead for luggage delays)
- About €150 for any immediate needs (if you prefer not to use the ATM or exchange money at the airport)
- Italian dictionary-phrasebook
- Patience and an open mind to make the most of your new and exciting adventure!

Also, don't forget to forward and share this information with your parents and to send JCU your arrival info if you are arriving during working hours.

Don't leave without it...
