

The Spanish Economy

UFV CODE: 4323 ECTS: 6.0

TYPE OF COURSE: T, 1C HOURS: 60

INTERNATIONAL CODE: ECO4323 YEAR: 3

REQUIREMENTS: ECO4311

OBJECTIVES: Students will study the basic notions of the Spanish economic structure and learn to analyse and evaluate its current situation and main problems.

COURSE DESCRIPTION: Elements of the Spanish economic structure: recent evolution, productive factors (natural, human and capital), productive sectors (primary, secondary, tertiary), functional sectors (finances, international commerce and public sector), domestic environment and income distribution.

BIBLIOGRAPHY: RALLO ROMERO, A., GUZMÁN CUEVAS, J. y SANTOS CUMPLIDO,

F.J.: Curso de estructura económica Española. Pirámide, 2001. GARCÍA DELGADO, J.L.: Lecciones de economía Española. Thomson – Civitas 6ª edition. Madrid 2003.

METHODOLOGY: Critical analysis of the subject, class debates about current issues and specific cases, and reports produced individually or in pairs (and subsequent presentation in class).

EVALUATION: Written exams (60%), reports (30%) and class attendance and participation (10%).

PROFESSOR: Gloria Claudio Quiroga. LANGUAGE: Spanish.