

COURSE NAME: FINANCIAL MANAGEMENT

UFV CODE: 4235 ECTS: 12.0

TYPE OF COURSE: T, AN

INTERNATIONAL CODE: FIN4235 YEAR: 4

REQUIREMENTS: FIN4231

OBJECTIVES: To familiarize the students with the sphere of action in which a company's economic and financial activity takes place, and give them a thorough grasp of the world of management and the tools used by managers in decision-making

COURSE DESCRIPTION: Objectives of financial management. Mission, objectives and roles of a financial director. Outlines of finance. The economic and financial activity of the company (analysis of the economic and financial structure of the company, ratios).

Provisional balances. Investments, analysis and evaluation. Risks in managerial activity.

Risk management

BIBLIOGRAPHY: Selected literature on financial management will be used for each of the course topics

METHODOLOGY: Compulsory class attendance and participation. Courses are approached from the perspective and experience of the professor. Theoretical and practical classes

EVALUATION: Semester exams after both first and second semester, allowing for partial exemption in final exam (June and September). Evaluation of students' active participation and commitment in class. Concerning the problems solved in class, the written report and its oral presentation will be evaluated

PROFESSOR: Tomás Alfaro Drake LANGUAGE: Spanish