

Course: Introduction to Macroeconomics

CREDITS: 4

UFV CODE: 4214

INTERNATIONAL CODE: ECO4214

HOURS: 60

OBJECTIVES: Students will be given a complete overview of economics and will learn the main factors that determine economic behaviour. Students are taught the aims and policies of macroeconomics, and the concept of supply and demand. National accountancy is analyzed.

COURSE DESCRIPTION: Model of determination of income in a closed economy.

BIBLIOGRAPHY: MOCHON, F.: Principios de Economía. Mc Graw Hill, Madrid 2002.

METHODOLOGY: Theoretical and practical classes. Active participation and commitment, reports, essays and problem-solving in groups, and case studies.

EVALUATION: The final exam will account for most of the final grade. The professor will also evaluate the students' oral participation and written reports.

PROFESSOR: Nieves Carmona.

LANGUAGE: Spanish