Course Description

This course will explore how to manage organizations effectively by understanding organizational theory and learn how to apply the principles of organizational design to change organizational structures. This course will enable students to develop the skills and techniques to help the firm to meet its desired goals and objectives.

Course Goals and Methodology

The main purpose of this course is to introduce students to the world of organizational theory, design and change. The methodology of the course will be based on readings, slides summarizing key concepts and practical case studies related to each chapter.

At the conclusion of this course students will:

1. Learn and understand organizational theory and why it is important.
2. Understand the historical evolution of organizational theory and how these theories are applied today.
3. Demonstrate knowledge and ability to identify different organizational structures.
4. Identify characteristics of the various organizational theories and evaluate which could be the best fit for a firm.
5. Learn how to diagnose organizational problems and propose adequate solutions.

Lectures & Slides based off following textbooks:

-Jones, Gareth R., "Organizational Theory, Design, and Change," Pearson, 2013, 7th edition.

-Daft, Richard L., "Organizational Theory and Design," South-Western, 2013, 11th edition.

General Course Policies

Each student is expected to be familiar with the course syllabus. Students are expected to focus their full attention on the class, arrive on time, and stay until the class ends. Leaving the classroom on repeated occasions when class is in session is disturbing both to your professor and your classmates and may adversely affect your participation grade. Please make use of the 10- minute breaks in between classes to fill up your water bottle, use the restroom, etc.

Students are expected to listen and respect other points of view. Phone calls, social media, email or internet browsing at any time during class are not acceptable except for specific class-related activity expressly approved by your instructor. You are responsible for any and all course material covered in class, announcements, quizzes and case studies, if you are not present for any reason.

Students will be held responsible to be up to date by attending class regularly and checking both email and the Blackboard site of the course frequently (monitor your email and Blackboard announcements at least once every 24 hours).

Communicating with instructor: Please allow at least 48 hours for your instructor to respond to your emails. The weekend is not included in this timeframe. If you have any urgent request or question for your professor, be sure to send it during the week.

Attendance and Punctuality

Attendance is mandatory at all classes. As we understand that you might fall ill or be unable to come to class (e.g. due to a religious holiday, a flight delay, a family wedding/reunion, a graduation, a job interview, etc.) at some point during the semester, you are allowed up to 4 absences. You will be responsible for the material covered and any work missed. You will not need to justify your absences (up to 4) in any way unless you miss an exam, a presentation, a quiz, etc. In this case, you must present a doctor's note (signed, stamped and dated) to be able to reschedule the exam, etc. It will still count as an absence but you will be allowed to retake the exam, etc. We don't encourage you to use all 4 days unless you really need them as your participation grade may suffer if you are not in class. If used unwisely and you get sick last in the semester, the following penalties will apply:

- On your 5th absence, 1 point will be taken off your final Spanish grade.
- On your 6th absence, 3 points will be taken off your final Spanish grade.
- On your 7th absence, automatic fail.

For classes that meet once a week, each absence counts as two. For classes that meet daily, the penalties outlined above apply if you go over 8 absences (9th absence=5th absence above). Exams missed due to an excused absence must be made up within a week of returning to classes. Talk to your professor immediately after your return.

Punctuality is required. Being late will be penalized by 0.5 (over 15 mins.) or 1 absence (over 30 mins.)

COVID-19

Regarding any changes related to the COVID-19 pandemic, the procedure to follow will be in accordance with the current legislation in the region of Andalusia, Spain.

Academic Honesty

Academic integrity is a guiding principle for all academic activity at Pablo de Olavide University. Cheating on exams and plagiarism (which includes copying from the Internet) are clear violations of academic honesty. A student is guilty of plagiarism when he or she presents another person's intellectual property as his or her own. The penalty for plagiarism and cheating is a failing grade for the assignment/exam and a failing grade for the course. The International Center may also report this to your home university. Avoid plagiarism by citing sources properly, using footnotes and a bibliography, and not cutting and pasting information from various websites when writing assignments.

Learning accommodations

If you require special accommodations, or have any other special medical condition you deem may affect your class performance, you must stop by the International Center to speak to the Faculty Coordinator, Marta Carrillo Orozo (mcaroro@acu.upo.es) to either turn in your documentation or to confirm that our office has received it. The deadline is Monday, February 6th. The Faculty Coordinator will explain the options available to you.

Behavior Policy

Students are expected to show integrity and act in a professional and respectful manner at all times. A student's attitude in class may influence his/her participation grade. The professor has a right to ask a student to leave the classroom if the student is unruly or appears intoxicated. If a student is asked to leave the classroom, that day will count as an absence regardless of how long the student has been in class.
